Steve currently serves as the member in charge of the firm's tax department. In his supervisory role, Steve oversees the work of the tax staff and regulates operations within the department. He provides service to a diverse client base, specifically high net worth individuals, physician groups, home builders, real estate, construction and land development entities. Steve maintains a high standard of quality and takes a hands-on approach to ensuring each client receives the best service possible.

Prior to joining Watkins Uiberall, PLLC, Steve worked for over 30 years to build a strong portfolio of skills and knowledge. He began his career at the international firm of Arthur Andersen & Co. in 1969. Steve subsequently operated his own firm, Steven Leib and Company, PC, for many years. His firm then merged into Uiberall, Leib, Blockman, Perry, PC, which is now known as Watkins Uiberall, PLLC.

Steve is a native of Chattanooga and currently resides in Memphis with his wife and children. In his free time, he enjoys playing tennis and traveling.
