

Sherry S. Perry Member

sperry@wucpas.com

Sherry joined what is now Watkins Uiberall, PLLC in 1979. In her role as member, she serves as a trusted advisor to the firm's clients. In addition, Sherry is the leader of the firm's ERISA Audit Quality Center of the AICPA membership. She has experience in all areas of accounting and assurance, including accounting systems management, organizational structures and qualified retirement plans. Over the years Sherry has worked with a diverse client base, serving hotel, real estate development, agribusiness, timber, not-for-profits and foreign entities.

Sherry primarily provides tax management and business consulting for closely-held businesses. She specializes in tax preparation, consulting and planning services for ambulatory centers throughout the United States. As an expert in the industry, Sherry provided tax services to the first U.S. center opened in Memphis.

Sherry gained a jump-start on her public accounting career as an intern for Anderson & Uiberall, P.C. during her junior year of college. She became a full-time professional in 1978 with the firm of Price Waterhouse. Sherry then joined the firm of Uiberall, Leib, Blockman, Perry, P.C., which is now known as Watkins Uiberall, PLLC.

Sherry is a native of Tennessee and resides in Memphis with her family. In her free time, she relaxes by reading and gardening. Sherry is also a sports fanatic and closely follows college football, the NFL and the University of Memphis Tigers basketball.

Professional Designations and Licenses

- Certified Public Accountant (CPA) – Tennessee, Mississippi

Memberships

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)
- Tennessee Society of CPAs (TSCPA)
- The Work Place
 - Board of Directors
- Faith Presbyterian Church
- United Way
 - Former Loan Executive
 - Former Allocations Committee Member

Education

- University of Memphis
 - Bachelor of Business Administration, Accountancy, summa cum laude (1976)

Sherry's Personal Mission Statement

"Always put what is best for the client first and foremost. If the client's needs are well met and you strive to fully understand their business and concerns, professional success will take care of itself."