

William H. (Trey) Watkins, III Member

twatkins@wucpas.com

Trey joined the member group of Watkins Uiberall, PLLC in 2009. As a member, he provides comprehensive audit preparation, compliance and consulting services. Trey's responsibilities include administration of the firm's audit department which includes scheduling staff members to projects and project follow-up to ensure deadlines and goals are being met. He focuses his efforts within the construction industry, but also serves clients within the manufacturing, not-for-profit, government and brokerage industries.

Trey has made Watkins Uiberall his home since 1996. His dedication to the firm shines through in his interactions with coworkers and clients, and being a second-generation Watkins professional, he literally bears the firm's family atmosphere in his name.

Trey pursued a career in accounting because of his passion of being a trusted business advisor to clients and learning all aspects of their business, including opportunities and challenges that lead to success.

Trey is a Memphis native, where he currently resides with his wife, Sarah, and sons William, Henry and James. When away from the office, he enjoys spending time with his wife and children, golfing and hunting.
